Individual statement of responsibility:

As a recipient of Veteran Affairs education benefits, I understand that I must make satisfactory progress toward a stated education objective (satisfactory progress involves systematic advancement towards the degree objective based upon the number of credit hours attempted and completed per semester). I further understand that fraudulent receipt of Veteran Affairs education benefits and non-attendance in a certified course will result in immediate termination and possible criminal charges by the U.S. Government, and in certain instances the withholding of grades, diplomas and transcripts by New Mexico State University. By submitting this document via my NMSU email, I acknowledge that the information provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge
