Post-9/11 GI Bill® (Chapter 33)
Eligible individuals receive a percentage of the following, based on length of service.
Tuition and Fees Payments are issued to the school. VA pays the actual net cost for in-state tuition and fees for up to 36 months.
Housing Allowance Monthly Housing Allowance (MHA) payment is issued to the student at the beginning of each month for training pursued the previous month. MHA Rate (E-5 with dependent) is calculated based on the zip code of the campus where the student physically attends the majority of classes, rather than the location of the institution where the student is enrolled. BAH Calculator: http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/bahCalc.cfm
Book and Supply Stipend This payment is issued to the student, based on the number of credit or clock hours certified by the school, not to exceed $1,000.00 per year. The rate is $41.67 per credit hour. For programs measured in clock hours, VA will pay $83.00/month (prorated for partial months).

Effective July 7, 2014, the Department of Defense (DOD) implemented the following policy:

Federal Tuition Assistance (TA) will not be authorized for any course for which a Service member receives reimbursement in whole or in part from any other Federal source such as veterans' education benefits (GI Bill and other programs) and Service-funded programs (ROTC scholarship, education-related incentive or bonus, and advanced civil schooling) when the payment would constitute a duplication of benefits paid to that educational institution.
